EPISCOPAL CHURCH

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY! WE'RE GLAD YOU ARE HERE!

We are so glad you have chosen to worship with us and hope you will return. You will find more information about worshipping with us on the white laminated card found hanging on the back of the pew. We also invite you to complete the visitor card and place it in the offering plate or give it to an usher so that we may further welcome you. If you would like to communicate a prayer request or pastoral need, please let us know on the back of these cards.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 19, 2020

In our Anglican cycle of prayer, we pray for the united Church of Bangladesh.

In our local cycle of prayer we pray for Family Service of the Piedmont. Family Service of the Piedmont empowers individuals and families in crisis to restore hope, achieve stability and thrive through quality support services, advocacy and education.

The flowers on the high altar are given to the glory of God and in memory of Craig Murphy by Ron Johnson and Bill Roane, Jr.

The greens on the church high altar during the week are given by Tom and Susan Storrs to the glory of God.

We welcome the Rev. Canon Ernest Graham, Regional Canon for the Diocese, who is assisting us as we undertake our outreach project this Sunday.

We pray for the souls of Gary LaGrange, uncle of Pat Bailey and Dee Irwin, Tom Willingham, friend of Adair Armfield, Sue Leonard, mother of Rob Leonard and wife Allison Leonard, Mary S. Ingram, mother of Mary Calvin, and Amelia (Meegie) Cloninger Stout, sisiter of Bill Clonginger and wife Kate Clonginger.

Nurseries for children four and under are open each Sunday. Nursery assignments are:

Infant & Toddler — Room 105

Preschool — Room 104

Music — On MLK weekend, Allegra Gicla plays organ music for Epiphany at the 8 a.m. service. At the 9 and 11:15 a.m. services the Prelude includes settings of African-American spirituals by Eugene W. Hancock. The Offertory is a setting of the Faure Agnus Dei (O, lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world, grant them peace). David Dobbins conducts their choir. Our Taize music continues with two newly composed pieces in memory of parishioner Dot Latham. The Postlude is an improvisation the tune Lucerna Laudoniae, commonly used with For the Beauty of the Earth.

Hymns: Please let us know if you have a favorite hymn in our hymnal, and provide a short description why it is a favorite. It could be a meaningful family story, a symbol of a spiritual breakthrough, a hymn tune you sing all week long, or a hymn you just enjoy singing and hearing at church services. Let us know at ben-htms@triad.rr.com or 336-272-6149, ext. 400. We will endeavor to include your favorite hymn in our music at church and share your story with the parish.

During Lent, we offer special music on Wednesdays and Sundays. The Lenten Music Series continues on Wednesdays from 12:15-12:45 p.m. in the church. Music, readings and slides offer a contemplative experience in the middle of a busy week. The series features music for voice, strings, organ, and piano from composers including Bach, Grieg, and Brahms. In addition to our string players in Hodie performing during the series, we welcome Byrdsong, a recorder ensemble performing beautiful music of the 16th century. On Sundays, the Preludes for the 9 and 11:15 a.m. services will feature our vocalists in Trinity Voices. These music professionals will offer solo and ensemble music from masterworks including Messiah (Handel), Elijah (Mendelssohn), The St. Matthew Passion (Bach), and Faure's Requiem. Please experience these musical offerings to enhance your Lenten experience.

Email us your email address! Send us an email with your name to ensure your information is correct in our member records. Email Glenda@holy-trinity.com.

Filming — The 9 and 11:15 a.m. services are filmed on a rotating basis and posted on YouTube. Learn more on our website. We give thanks for electronic media that helps members near and far!

Epiphany Term Invited Reading — One of our Christian formation offerings this Epiphany term will be based on the book, Waking Up White. For those interested in participating in this class, you are invited to read the book before we begin as that will help facilitate our conversation. Thank you! Please contact the Rev. Sarah Carver sarah@holy-trinity.com with any questions.

Holy Trinity on the Move — Each year, our parish plans a church-wide community service activity for the third Sunday in January. This year, "Holy Trinity On The Move", is designed to connect us with our community. Today, January 19, we will gather in Haywood Duke after the 9 a.m. service to create winter care bags and bag lunches for our neighbors experiencing homelessness and then, parishioners who want to participate will walk to Center City Park, where we will share the care bags and lunches and have a simple worship service in the Park. If you did not have an opportunity to purchase items for the care bags but would like to make a monetary contribution to cover the purchase of toiletry items for the care bags or food items for the lunches, you may write a check to Holy Trinity with an indication for "January Outreach" and place it in the offering plate or donate online through the Holy Trinity website.

Be a Wednesday Night Dinner Host — Wednesday Night Dinners are a great place to enjoy fellowship, make new friends, and enjoy a delicious meal. We're looking for a few people to serve as dinner hosts. Each week from 4:55-7 p.m., hosts welcome guests, collect money, and assist the kitchen staff as needed. If you would like to be a part of this incredible hospitality ministry, please contact Rev. Mark Lile-King at mark@holy-trinity.com or 272-6149 x272.

COMING UP

EYC Late Night/Lock In — Friday, January 24 8 p.m. Email meredith@holy-trinity.com to register.

Faith And Film — Join us Sunday, January 26, at 3:30 p.m. in Roe Library for a special showing of the film, Emanuel: The Untold Story of The Victims and Survivors of The Charleston Church Shooting. Produced by Stephen Curry and Viola Davis, this heartbreaking and inspiring documentary powerfully weaves together the history of race relations in Charleston, the significance and impact of the mass shooting at Mother Emanuel Church, and the hope and forgiveness that emerge in the aftermath. The film will be followed by a discussion led by Tom Robins. Due to its difficult content, the film contains disturbing images and is designed for mature audiences only. This event is free. Light refreshments will be served. Viewing and discussion conclude at 6 p.m.

Youth Confirmation — Youth Confirmation classes for 9th grade and older will begin on Sunday, January 26 at 10:15 – 11 a.m. in the Fisher cafe. If you did not register at the information meeting in November, please contact marjorie@holy-trinity.com to register and receive all the confirmation dates for your calendar.

Family Friendly Super Bowl Party — Holy Trinity's Young(ish) Men's Fellowship is excited to host Holy Trinity's families for its inaugural Super Bowl party. Bring the kids and your favorite tailgating food and join us on the Terrace and in Haywood Duke on Sunday, February 2 at 5:30 p.m. Bring a tailgating treat to share as we make this a potluck party. Make that treat good as you will be in the running to win the Young(ish) Men's group's inaugural "SB Tailgate Bowl" where we will let the kids pick their favorite unhealthy treat. We look forward to seeing you and your rambunctious rabble.

Financial Peace University — Financial Peace University is a dynamic nine-week program that combines biblical financial teachings with modern financial management so that you can “live and give like no one else”. Financial Peace University starts February 5 at 6 p.m. The last two classes saved a combined $52,000 and paid off $198,819 in debt over the nine-week courses. Dave Ramsey has helped over 5 million people improve their lives with this program showing how to manage money by biblical principles. If you are interested or want to know more contact the class coordinator, Nick Klett at 336-508-6591 or sign up online at fpu.com/1104726

He She, We & God — He, She, We & God sexuality workshop for 5th and 6th graders and their parents is scheduled the weekend of February 7 and 8. We as a Christian community have a unique responsibility and opportunity to place the gift of sexuality within our Christian faith. Parents are invited to attend an informal information session on Wednesday, January 22 at 6:15 p.m. in Smyth Library with adults from our parish who have served as He, She, We, and God leaders in the past. Information and registration forms have been mailed to 5th and 6th grade parents. Cost for the weekend is $75 per child with a $100 cap for families with more than one child. Confidential scholarships are available by contacting marjorie@holy-trinity.com. Register is due ASAP with deadline Friday, January 24. To register, visit our website or the ePistle. No phone registrations.

EYC Glory Ridge Applications deadline is February 12.

Peace Pilgrimage — The Peace Pilgrimage includes 6 seminars that culminates with a 3.5 mile pilgrimage walk around Greensboro to the historic civil rights sights. The seminars will introduce and make familiar the history that forms the background to the activities in Greensboro that led to the opening of the city’s public accommodations and to the end of “Jim Crow” in Greensboro in 1964. We want to be inspired by knowing more about the experience of those who have walked the path of seeking justice before us; we want to know how faith, hope and love can be taught by standing up for what is right and how peace can prevail within such a challenge. Thursday Seminar Dates: February 13, 20, 27, March 5, 12, and 19, from 7-8:30 p.m in the Chapel. Pilgrimage Walk: Saturday, March 21. Led by Dr. Linda Brown. Cost: $65 (Pay online at the church website and write “Peace Pilgrimage” in the memo section).

PASTORAL CARE

Pastoral Care Ministry Emergencies — This ministry oversees visiting members of our Church family who may be in one of our hospitals. Because of confidentiality laws, we no longer have access to information telling us who is in the hospital. If you or a member of your family are admitted to one of the hospitals, If you are in need of spiritual care during an emergency and want to reach out to clergy or a member of the pastoral staff here at Holy Trinity, please call 336-365-0750.

Guild of the Christ Child is a new ministry of welcome of a child through birth or adoption. If you are expecting a child, we would love to know so that we can reach out for connection and support. And because this is an emerging ministry, we welcome all who wish to be a part of it. For more information on joining the ministry or to share the news that your family is growing, please contact Julie Buie at julie@holy-trinity.com.

DAY SCHOOL

Holy Trinity Day School’s registration for the 2020-2021 school year begins Monday, January 27. The application will be available on the website under “Enrollment”. Please contact the school today at 336-275-7726 or at julie@holy-trinity.com to set up a tour or to learn more about the program.

OUTREACH

The Need Box for December is designated for Outreach Projects for January.

Food collection for the month of January is for Triad Health Project. Current needs can be found in the ePistle. Collection boxes are located in the narthex, receptionist lobby, and the elevator lobby. Healthy food items may be brought in bags to the church, but please do not bring empty bags, as they use up valuable space in the collection boxes. Food should be unopened, not expired, and not in glass containers. 132 Pounds were collected during December – Thank you!

Wonderful Outreach Ministry Opportunity Available — On Tuesday mornings local Episcopal churches prepare and serve a hot breakfast for approximately 125 - 150 people as well as prepare 60 bag lunches. Volunteers are needed to help serve and clean up from 6:30 - 7:45 a.m. Come any Tuesday morning to meet and have fellowship with an amazing core group who prepare the meals and with the men and women who appreciate the breakfast and bag lunches. Greensboro Urban Ministry is located at 305 W Gate City Blvd. If you have questions, please contact Carla Ashley at 336-324-3854 or carashleyla@gmail.com.

Prayers in the Park Ministry — Join us in sharing God's love with our neighbors in need. All are invited to share food, fellowship and hope with our downtown neighbors experiencing hunger and homelessness through this weekly, year-round ministry. Meet us on the Greenway beside the church at 2:45 p.m. on Sunday afternoons as we share a pilgrimage to Center City Park. You can also help by signing up to prepare food. Prayers in the Park is a rewarding experience for all ages, and an ideal way to unite families or groups of all types in service to others. To sign up as a lunch preparer, and to learn more about ways to support, visit www.holy-trinity.com/serve/outside-the-parish. Follow us on Facebook at "Prayers in the Park." For more information, contact Ken Keeton at keetonken00@gmail.com.

SECOND BREATH CENTER

Registration is open for winter classes beginning Monday, February 3. Outward Journey is the core course being offered this winter. Also offered are the classes: Contemplative Prayer, Prayerful Yoga, Creating a Sacred Space, Writing from the Heart, Practicing Presence Through the Enneagram, Poised on a Glad Expectancy of God, Sacred Activism, Second Saturday and Fourth Saturday. Visit secondbreathcenter.com for more information and registration.

Special Note to All Who have Taken SB1 or The Journey Inward: If you have taken SB1 (The Inward Journey) or Servant Leadership 1, you are eligible to take Outward Journey in the Winter/Spring 2020 term taught by the Rev. Greg Farrand and Ruth D. Anderson, PhD.
