The greens on the Church high altar during the week are given by Margie Allen to the glory of God and in loving memory of Bill Allen.

We celebrate the baptism of Jena Rose Shaver Plummer.

Music for today — Special instrumental and vocal music celebrating Easter will be performed during the Prelude. Psalm 118, arranged by Marty Haugen, will be performed by soloists Hilary Webb and Rachel Sommers. The Offertory Anthem is Sally Morris' Earth, Earth Awake. Special instrumental and Taizé music begins during Communion. The Postlude is Alleluia from Exsultate, jubilate of W. A. Mozart.

In our local cycle of prayer we pray for Horse Power. Horse Power promotes and enhances the welfare of individuals with disabilities by providing a program of therapeutic, educational and recreational value, to individuals who are mentally, physically, emotionally and/or socially challenged through the use of horses.

Downtown Greenway construction — Construction is now beginning on Fisher Avenue between Eugene and Greene and will continue here through July. During construction, there will be no on-street parking on Fisher on either the north or south side of the street. Once construction is complete, on-street parking will be restored on Holy Trinity's side of Fisher Avenue with marked spaces and landscaping between each space. The Sacred Garden Bookstore will be open during construction. Parking is available in the lot behind the church and on Simpson St. Please enter at the front of the bookstore or through the meditation garden in the rear.

Downtown Road closures — Several Greensboro streets will close for sewer and water line work including the intersection of West Fisher Avenue at North Eugene Street and North Eugene Street between Bellemeade and West Smith streets. The North Eugene Street closure between Bellemeade and West Smith streets will take place from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily through June 10. Dates and times are subject to change due to last-minute changes in work schedules in both of these projects. The city strongly encourages motorists to use the detours or alternate routes to avoid the areas.

Calling all Holy Trinity gardeners — there are large and small garden plots available for the 2017 season. The large plots are $25 and the small plots $10. Please contact C.P. Eldred, HT Community Garden Manager, at 336-541-8124 or c.p.eldred46@gmail.com if you are interested.

Pastoral Care Ministry: The Pastoral Care Ministry oversees visiting members of our Church family who may be in one of our hospitals. Because of confidentiality laws, we no longer have access to information telling us who is in the hospital. If you or a member of your family are admitted to one of the hospitals, we would like to be notified so we can visit and pray with you. Contact the Rev. Sarah Carver at 336-272-6149 ext 220 or sarah@holy-trinity.com.

COMING UP

The Sacred Garden Bookstore will be closed Easter Sunday, April 16. The Church office and the Bookstore will be closed on Monday, April 17.

Addiction Presentation and Conversation with the Rev. Dr. Stuart Hoke this Wednesday – April 19 from 6 - 7:30 p.m. Join us for a parish wide conversation with Rev. Stuart Hoke, an Episcopal priest who is active with Recovery Ministries in the Episcopal Church and who widely speaks and teaches about addiction. Hoke understands addiction as a significant pastoral issue facing the Church and has been personally involved in recovery for the past 30 years. He pioneered the teaching of two recovery related courses at The General Theological Seminary in New York and served at Trinity Wall Street and as missionary to St. Paul's Chapel at Ground Zero after the terrorist attacks. He moved to North Carolina in 2008 and serves as the vicar of All Saints in Hamlet, North Carolina. Childcare will be available. Broome Hall.

Special Sunday School Offering April 23: Come learn about the Greenway — Join Dabney Sanders, Project Manager of Downtown Greenway, Sunday, April 23 at 10:15 a.m. in Broome Hall to learn more about the Downtown Greenway Project. The presentation will include a history and vision of the Greenway and an update on construction in the Holy Trinity area.

Easter Term of Christian Formation classes begin: Sunday, April 23

- The Divine Dance — (Starting April 30): What if changing our perception of God has the power to change everything? God is not what many people think. Visions of an angry, distant moral scorekeeper or a supernatural Santa Claus handing out cosmic lottery tickets to those who attend the right church or say the right prayer dominate our culture. For many others, God has become irrelevant or simply unbelievable. Using Richard Rohr and Mike Morrell's book The Divine Dance, we will explore the early Christian image of the Trinity: perichoresis, a circle dance. The unending flow of giving and receiving between Father, Son, and Spirit is the pattern of reality. God is not only a dancer, but the Dance itself! Join us as we engage this new lens for transformative experiences with God. Led by the clergy team, Broome Hall.
- Inquirer's Class: Designed for newcomers to the Episcopal Church as well as those seeking a "refresher course," or those wishing to renew their faith commitment, this class will provide an overview of the history, theology, worship and practice of the Episcopal Church. The course is part of the preparation for adults seeking Confirmation or Reception into the Episcopal Church, but all are welcome. Led by the clergy team, Roe Library. Confirmation is June 11.
- Aliens and Strangers: We will explore this core biblical theme in a variety of contexts – from what the Old Testament text says about how to treat the foreigners among them to the call for Christians, in Hebrews, to welcome strangers for they may be angels in disguise. Far from the common human posture of xenophobia, fear of strangers, our scriptures reveal a surprising and counter-intuitive call to xenophilia, love of strangers. Led by Dr. Sandie Gravett, Professor of Philosophy and Religion, Appalachian State University, Haywood Duke Room.

Join us for a blessing of the Servant Farm Saturday, April 29, 10 a.m. and learn more about how Holy Trinity is doing God's work by using the earth's bounty to feed people. Last year Holy Trinity's Servant Farm harvested 30,000 pounds of food, providing fresh produce to people experiencing food insecurity. Come see how you can be a part of providing healthy food to people in need. The farm is located at 8128 E. Harrell Road, Oak Ridge, NC.

Annual ECW Spring Soirée — The members of the Episcopal Church Women invite the parish to their annual fundraiser on Sunday, April 30 from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at the home of Darden and Steve Kelly, 316 Willoughby Blvd. Join us for hors d'oeuvres, wine, and a raffle to support ministries for women and children. Rector's Newcomer and New Member Spring Reception — Newcomers and new members to Holy Trinity are invited to the Rev. Tim Patterson & Kathleen Forbes' home Sunday, April 30 from 4 to 5 p.m. Please RSVP by Thursday, April 27 to Mark Lile-King at 336-272-6149 x272 or mark@holy-trinity.com.

Sunday, April 30, Paintball in honor and memory of Kean McElroy — Join us at Paintball Central in Burlington NC from 2-4 p.m. The cost is $35 and reservations are required. Please email meredith@holy-trinity.com or visit the youth webpage at www.holytrinityeyc.com, click on Events Tab and pay online.

You are invited to a Cursillo weekend, June 8-11, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Cary, N.C. Cursillo is a successful three day program consisting of talks, discussion and activities. It is a presentation and experience of Christ's love for each of us. Cursillo has been a part of the Episcopal Church in North Carolina since 1976 and is supported by the Bishop. Applications to attend are available online at nccursillo.org or from the lay Director, Cameron Cooke, at 336-603-6709 or rcamcooke@yahoo.com. SERVANT LEADERSHIP SCHOOL

Camp Weaver Scholarships — For the past several years, Holy Trinity has raised about $2500 to send 20 formerly homeless children to Camp Weaver during the summer. This overnight camp has been life-changing for the children. With a generous scholarship from Camp Weaver, we raise $125 per child. Ask any Holy Trinity member who tutors these children twice a week at Partnership Village about the children and this ministry: Barbara Chromhecke, Marcia Thomas, Sherry Warman, Claudio Parra, Carrie Adamic and Ruth Anderson. Make checks payable to The Servant Leadership School of Greensboro, put in memo "Camp Weaver" and send to 215 W. Fisher Ave, GSO, NC 27401 (or drop off at the bookstore).

Centering Prayer — Join us any Wednesday from 12-12:30 p.m. in the Fisher House Upper Room for Centering Prayer led by Kristen Leigh Southworth, M.Div. No prior registration is necessary. We begin with a brief reflection on the practice of Centering Prayer, followed by three deep breaths, and then we enter into 20 minutes of silence together. Beginners are always welcome!

Every semester, the Servant Leadership School offers a variety of opportunities for spiritual reflection, growth, and community support, led by experienced clergy, spiritual directors, and professors. We offer a core curriculum for deeper spiritual transformation and discernment, as well as a variety of "companion classes" that can be taken by anyone at any time. Visit www.servantleadergreensboro.com for more information about our program and offerings.

OUTREACH

Help needed for Mobile Meals! On the third Monday of each month, Holy Trinity sends 20 pairs of volunteers out from 9:30-11:30 a.m. to deliver meals to homebound seniors. Please keep in mind that for some of these seniors, it is the only hot meal they get and often the only person they see. We're in need of one person to join us. If you can do this, or if you would be willing to be an occasional substitute, please contact Richard Cox at marcox2@earthlink.net or at 336-274-8644.

Prayers in the Park Ministry — volunteers needed April 30 and Sundays in May: Are you looking for an opportunity to help our hungry neighbors? Would you like to get a group of friends together to participate in a worthwhile ministry? We have the perfect way to do that — prepare simple bag lunches to be delivered in downtown Greensboro. To sign up or get more information, contact Terri Cartner at cartnerterri@gmail.com or the Rev. Sarah Carver at sarah@holy-trinity.com, or speak with any of the other team members: Peter Carver, Martha Chaires, Joe Dzugan, Rose and Wes Hood, Ken Keeton, Philip Link, Lou and Buzz O'Brien, and Julia and Jay Robinson. Follow us on our new Facebook page Prayers in the Park. If you are interested in going with the team to the park, please email Ken Keeton at keetonken00@gmail.com.

Food collection for the month of April is for Triad Health Project and Faith Action, which is running low on cooking oil, canned meats (tuna and chicken), canned fruits, diapers (size 4, 5, and 6), and baby wipes. Triad Health Project is quite low on on all healthy, canned food except green beans (meats, soups, and starches are always a necessity for them). Please place items in the boxes located in the narthex, the receptionist lobby, and the elevator lobby. Food should be unopened, not past its expiration date, and should not be in glass containers.

- We delivered 190 lbs of food to G.U.M. Thank you!

StepUp Greensboro is in great need of front office volunteers! Our office hours are 8:30 a.m.-5 PM Monday through Friday. The volunteer would answer the phone and greet people as they enter the building. Volunteers may define the hours, days and frequency of volunteering at StepUp. We will train volunteers for front office skills. Anyone who is interested in volunteering, please email Marsha Cole- mcole@stepupgreensboro.org or marshac98@gmail.com or 336-663-1988. or 336-430-4966
