EPISCOPAL CHURCH

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY!

We are so glad you have chosen to worship with us and hope you will return. You will find more information about worshipping with us on the white laminated card found hanging on the back of the pew. We also invite you to complete the visitor card and place it in the offering plate or give it to an usher so that we may further welcome you. If you would like to communicate a prayer request or pastoral need, please let us know on the back of these cards.

TODAY: SUNDAY, APRIL 15, 2018

In our Anglican cycle of prayer, we pray for the Church of Ireland.

In our local cycle of prayer we pray for Horse Power. Horse Power promotes and enhances the welfare of individuals with disabilities by providing a program of therapeutic, educational and recreational value, to individuals who are mentally, physically, emotionally and/or socially challenged through the use of horses.

The flowers on the high altar are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mary Burns and John Richard Detgen by their daughters, Derry, Anne, Tish, Jane and Caroline.

The greens on the church high altar during the week are given by Margie Allen to the glory of God and in loving memory of Bill Allen.

We pray for the souls of Annie Maycock Turner, sister of Joel Maycock, sister-in-law of Cary Maycock, and aunt of Aidan, Alexandra, and Julian Maycock, and Joseph Howard Verdery.

We celebrate today's baptisms of Anna Katherine Hacker, daughter of Caroline and Brett Hacker, and Eloise Elizabeth Keiner, daughter of Eloise (Weezie) and Christopher Keiner.

Nurseries for children four and under are open each Sunday. Nursery assignments are:

Infant & Toddler – Room 105 Preschool – Room 103

Flu Season – If you are concerned about the spread of the flu, we remind you during the passing of peace that a slight nod or bow of the head acknowledges you care for those around you and you are welcome to partake of only the bread at communion. In our tradition, crossing your arms over your chest when the cup is presented indicates to the chalice-bearer that you will not drink from it. The words of administration will still be said ("The blood of Christ, the cup of salvation"). The bread alone conveys fullness of grace.

Update Your Holy Trinity Contact Information – Today and April 22. – We want to update everybody's contact information before printing Holy Trinity's new photo directory. Tables will be set up in front of the church on this morning and April 22 before and after the 9 and 11:15 a.m. services for you to update your information. If you are unable to update your information on these days, please contact Parish Secretary Patty Jennings at 336-272-6149 by April 23. Thank you.

High School Seniors – Please Respond! If you are a Senior in High School, Holy Trinity will honor you and present you with a Bible at the 9 a.m. service on May 6 (Youth Sunday). There will be a reception following in the Youth House. Seniors or parents of Seniors, please email marjorie@holy-trinity.com with the following information by Friday, April 27:

- Senior's full name (first, middle and last)
- Where you will graduate from high school
- Where you will attend college (or other after high school plans)
- Whether or not you will be present to receive your Bible on May 6

The Easter Term of Christian Formation classes begin next Sunday at 10:15 a.m.:

- Embodying Self-Compassion as Spiritual Practice: In the Christian Faith we've heard many times Jesus' words: "Love your neighbor as yourself." What does this really mean in practice? In this class we will explore what hinders self compassion, exploring the roots of self-contempt moving towards growing self-compassion through a theological, psychoanalytical and neuroscientific lens. We will wonder together about our bodies, hearts and minds joining God in tender, abiding, particular love for each of us. Taught by the Rev. Greg Farrand and licensed psychotherapist Ruth Wiley, Broome Hall
- Living Resurrection: This four-week series will explore how Christians actualize resurrection in the world around key issues of our time. Dr. Sandie Gravett will delve into concerns as basic as food and water – the stuff of life itself and how biblical insights inform our response as followers of Christ. Led by Dr. Sandie Gravett, Professor of Philosophy and Religion, Appalachian State University, Haywood Duke Room
- Violence Divine: Overcoming the Bible's Betrayal of its Non-Violent God: Is the only path to shalom through a valley of capricious divine bloodshed? One of the world's foremost historical Jesus scholars helps the church and its alumni/ae rise above the greatest of Christian treasons: that everlasting peace can only be achieved through the onslaught of divine violence. Professor and author John Dominic Crossan summarizes the essence of his bestselling How to Read the Bible & Still Be a Christian: Struggling with Divine Violence from Genesis Through Revelation and shows the way forward for those seeking an authentic Christianity for the 21st century. Led by the Rev. Sarah Carver and the Rev. Nathan Finnin, Roe Library.
- Inquirer's Class: This class is for Holy Trinity Newcomers who want to learn about the rich faith traditions and practices of the Episcopal Church, for members seeking a "refresher course," and for those who want to explore ways to more deeply live out faith at Holy Trinity. The class is an overview of the history, theology, worship, and practices of the Episcopal Church and an introduction to meaningful ministry at Holy Trinity. The Inquirer's Class is particularly suited for adults seeking Confirmation or Reception into the Episcopal Church on June 3. Led by Marjorie Donnelly and Rev. Mark Lile-King, Smyth Library. Contact Mark at 336-272-6149 x272 or mark@holy-trinity.com for more information.

Rector's Newcomer and New Member Spring Reception — Newcomers and new members to Holy Trinity are invited to the Rev. Tim Patterson & Kathleen Forbes' home today from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. Please RSVP to Mark Lile-King at 336-272-6149 x272 or mark@holy-trinity.com. Childcare is available at the church by request.

Enjoy Singing Hymns? We need a few good men and women — The Celestial Choir is an "ad hoc" group of singers who sing hymns and lead the liturgy at funerals. If you like to sing with a group and have time available during the day, usually during the week, this is an excellent opportunity to minister to bereaved Holy Trinity families. Celestial Choir members are contacted by email or phone when needed, usually a few days in advance. Members arrive 30 minutes prior to the service to vest and review the chosen hymns. The total time required is usually about an hour per service. This special ministry supports our own at a difficult time in their lives. To sign up for the choir, contact Ann Cantrell at eanncantrell@gmail.com.

Please be aware the back parking lot is currently closed as we begin our the first phase of our construction schedule. Please plan ahead and prepare to park on the street or in the Hanes Lineberry lot. See the ePistle for a detailed campus map. Thank you for your patience and cooperation as we move forward with this exciting project! It will be over before we know it and we will have many parking spaces to choose from!

COMING UP

English Speaking Union Program and Dinner — For April we will celebrate the ESU branches in Russia. Dr. Kathleen Macfie will focus on major movements and authors in Russian literature in the 20th century. Tuesday April 17, in Haywood Duke. See the ePistle for more information.

Construction Schedule for Children and Families — Construction on the Parish House and Broome Hall will begin in May. We usually suspend Sunday School, Children's Chapel and Wednesday evening programming for the summer months; however, this year, due to construction, we will not be able to have Nursery Care or Vacation Bible School. We will need to have everything packed and out of the Parish House by May 19. To meet that deadline, we need to end our programs early this spring. Our last Children's Choir practices are Wednesday, May 2. Our last Sunday School classes (for children and adults) are Sunday, May 6. The last Family Night Supper and Kids of the Kingdom are Wednesday, May 9. The last Children's Chapel and Nursery Care are Sunday, May 13. Families with young children are invited to worship in All Saints Chapel this summer where children can move around and make noise. We apologize for the inconvenience, but our programs for children and families will be back in the fall in newly updated facilities. Thanks for your understanding and cooperation.

Spring Soirée hosted by the ECW — Sunday, May 6 5-7 p.m. at the home of Dianne and Scott Roe, 401 Sunset Drive. Join us for a fun evening of church fellowship, food and wine to support important ministries for women and children in our community.
