EPISCOPAL CHURCH

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY!

We are so glad you have chosen to worship with us and hope you will return. You will find more information about worshipping with us on the white laminated card found hanging on the back of the pew. We also invite you to complete the visitor card and place it in the offering plate or give it to an usher so that we may further welcome you. If you would like to communicate a prayer request or pastoral need, please let us know on the back of these cards.

TODAY: SEPTEMBER 30, 2018

In our Anglican cycle of prayer, we pray for the The Church of the Province of Uganda.

In our local cycle of prayer we pray for Out of the Garden Project. Out of the Garden currently provides (with the help of 400-600 volunteers/partners each month) 900 bags of food each weekend to 50 elementary, middle, and high school students and their families.

The flowers on the high altar are given to the glory of God and in memory of Stephen Perry Millikin by Sally Millikin.

The greens on the church high altar during the week are given by Adair Armfield to the glory of God and in loving memory of Edward M. Armfield and John M. Webb Crute III.

We pray for the souls of Lorraine Dodds, and Carolyn Earnhardt Walker, mother of Bill Oden and mother in law of Jan Oden.

We celebrate the wedding of Katie Cohen & Jordan Walker.

Nurseries and chapel are now open — Nurseries are now open for children, birth – 4 years. Room 105 is for birth until children are toilet trained and Room 103 is for toilet trained children through 4 years. The nurseries are open 8:45 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. on Sunday mornings. Families with young children are invited to worship in All Saints Chapel where children can move around and make noise.

Chapel update — Our chapel renovations and updates are complete, and we are excited to be able to use this space again. One of the updates was to install a t-coil hearing loop. If you have hearing aides your audiologist can help determine accessibility. We have two stand alone units for anyone who would like extra amplification.

Music — The recorder ensemble, Byrdsong, will perform a movement from Bach Cantata No. 79, and an ensemble from Trinity Voices will join the recorders during the Prelude. During the Offertory, the Chancel Choir will sing the Heavens are Telling from Haydn's masterwork The Creation (1797-1798). Soloists are Lyndsey Swann, Carter Timberlake and Wesley McCleary-Small. We begin a new series of Taizé pieces featuring soloists Emily Frye and Carter Timberlake, and the Postlude is an improvisation on the hymn tune Litton.

Contact Information Needed for Family Newsletter — Each Sunday afternoon during the program year, we send out a Family Newsletter, which highlights church activities for children, youth, and families. If you have children birth–high school, and you are not already on the newsletter distribution list, please email marjorie@holy-trinity.com, so we can add you.

Attention walkers and supporters of the CROP Hunger Walk — Our annual walk this year will be on Sunday, October 14, beginning at the Greensboro Coliseum parking lot. As you know, this is a very worthy cause to raise money and interest in helping reduce hunger in the Greensboro area, and around the world. The Greater Greensboro CROP Hunger Walk is the fifth largest CROP Hunger Walk in the United States! You will have a chance to participate as a walker, donor, or both by signing up this Sunday at the covered walkway before and after Sunday services. T-shirts and donor info will be available at the sign-up table. You can also donate at any time by visiting the website www.crophungerwalk.org/greensboronc/, and clicking on the team name "Holy Trinity Episcopal Ch." Mark your calendars and get out your walking shoes!

OUTREACH

Food collection for the month of September is for the Triad Health Project. Current needs include canned proteins such as tuna and chicken stew. Collection boxes are located in the narthex, receptionist lobby, and the elevator lobby. Healthy food items may be brought in bags to the church, but please do not bring empty bags, as they use up valuable space in the collection boxes. Food should be unopened, not expired, and not in glass containers. 114 lbs were collected for August- thank you!

The Need Box for September is designated for Out of the Garden.

Reading connections — Over 80,000 adults in Guilford County suffer from low literacy that prevents them from getting a job, a GED, becoming a US citizen or otherwise achieving their dreams and objectives. READING CONNECTIONS is working on meeting a goal of "50 tutors in 50 days." To learn how you can help, call 336-230-2223, email info@readingconnections.org or check out their website, readingconnections.org

Congregational Care Ministry: This ministry oversees visiting members of our Church family who may be in one of our hospitals. Because of confidentiality laws, we no longer have access to information telling us who is in the hospital. If you or a member of your family are admitted to one of the hospitals, we would like to be notified so we can visit and pray with you. Contact the Rev. Sarah Carver at 336-272-6149 ext 220 or sarah@holy-trinity.com.

Prayers in the Park Ministry — Lunch preparers are needed each Sunday. If you are looking for an opportunity to help neighbors in need in downtown Greensboro, your participation is welcomed and most appreciated. SERVANT LEADERSHIP SCHOOL

Our fall classes began last week, but you are still welcome to register and join us! SL1: The Inward Journey of Faith, led by the Rev. Gregory Farrand, is offered this fall on Tuesdays from 6-8 p.m. or on Thursdays from 10 a.m.-Noon. You are invited to experience what Jesus described as a life of fullness and meaning. We will explore how the lenses and paradigms that we inherit from our culture and upbringing keep us stuck. A fresh, nuanced understanding of Christian spirituality helps us understand the paradigm shift that Jesus proclaimed: from a model of empire and domination to the Kingdom of God. Jesus' ancient teachings along with the contemporary shift currently unfolding in science and cosmology, offer us a new paradigm that provides a map for our journey to a life lived fully and freely. We know that we can't live into a paradigm shift with intellectual knowledge alone, so this course also comes with an extensive toolbox of practices. The practice-oriented path of Christian spirituality will help you blend the inward journey of personal transformation with the outward journey of service in the world.

To register for SL1 or to learn about other classes or workshops this fall, visit www.servantleadergreensboro.com or call (336) 544-1225.
