EPISCOPAL CHURCH

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY!

We are so glad you have chosen to worship with us and hope you will return. You will find more information about worshipping with us on the white laminated card found hanging on the back of the pew. We also invite you to complete the visitor card and place it in the offering plate or give it to an usher so that we may further welcome you. If you would like to communicate a prayer request or pastoral need, please let us know on the back of these cards.

SUNDAY: FEBRUARY 10, 2019

In our Anglican cycle of prayer, we pray for the Anglican Church of Canada.

In our local cycle of prayer we pray for Senior Resources and Mobile Meals. Senior Resources of Guilford is a non-profit organization which promotes the independent living of older adults in Guilford County. The Mobile Meals Program delivers a nutritious noontime meal to homebound senior adults age 60 and over.

The flowers on the high altar are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of William F. and Nancy Peebles Morrisette, Sr, and Mr. & Mrs. Emory Bush Peebles by the Morrisette, Stockdale, Sartin and McGinness Families.

The flowers on the chapel altar are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Eugenia and William Stockdale by Darrow, Bill and Taylor Stockdale.

The flowers in the Baptistry are given to the glory of God and in celebration of 10 joyful years with our Kean Scott Austin McElroy by McKiran, Caz, Tammy and Todd McElroy.

The greens on the church high altar during during the week are given by Dan and Laura Pierce to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pierce, Marion Jones and Frank Jones.

The rose on the credence table is in celebration of the birth of Ann Austin Johnston, daughter of Molly and Gilbert Johnston, granddaughter of Marti and Robin Tyler.

We pray for the souls of Harry J. Nanney, father of Karen Lawler and husband Bob Lawler, grandfather of Jay, Marie, and Michelle, and Lucy Holt Langston, sister of Mary Rainosek, sister-in-law of Mark Rainosek and aunt of Caroline and Mary Ashton Rainosek.

Nurseries for children four and under are open each Sunday. Nursery assignments are:

Infant & Toddler – Room 105

Preschool – Room 104

Music — The Prelude includes the African-American Spiritual Swing, Low Sweet Chariot and Duke Ellington's Sunday Morning performed by soprano Many Ryan. The Offertory is There is a Balm in Gilead featuring soloist Emily Frye. There is a Balm is included in our Black History Month Concert on February 24 at 4 p.m. in the church. The Postlude is an improvisation on the hymn tune Picardy.

United Thank Offering Ingathering of boxes and envelopes today — For over 125 years, the United Thank Offering has supported God's mission both locally and abroad through the spiritual discipline of giving thanks. Checks should be made payable to Holy Trinity with UTO on the memo line. UTO boxes and envelopes can also be dropped off at the church office or a check can be mailed to the church.

Flu Season — If you are concerned about the spread of the flu, we remind you during the passing of peace that a slight nod or bow of the head acknowledges you care for those around you and you are welcome to partake of only the bread at communion. In our tradition, crossing your arms over your chest when the cup is presented indicates to the chalice-bearer that you will not drink from it. The words of administration will still be said ("The blood of Christ, the cup of salvation"). The bread alone conveys fullness of grace.

EMC Update — Thank you to all of our parishioners who have made their 2019 pledges to the Every Member Canvass. Your generosity and faithfulness in giving has helped us raise $1,712,678.00, which is just over 90% of our goal. We are so grateful for your support. If you have pledged in the past, but have not yet pledged for 2019, your support is critical if we are to successfully reach our goal. We are edging closer by the day. Please make your Every Member Canvas pledge online by visiting www.holy-trinity.com/give/make-your-pledge/, mailing in your pledge card, or placing a card in the offering plate this Sunday. Every pledge counts.

Rite 13 — We welcome all youth who are thirteen years old (or will be this year), along with their parents, to participate in Rite 13. This morning, 10:15 a.m. in All Saints Chapel parents and youth will meet with the Rev. Nathan Finnin and Marjorie Donnelly. The parents have an assignment to complete prior to the Feb. 10 meeting. On Sunday, February 24 we will celebrate the Rite 13 liturgy during our 9 a.m. service. Please contact marjorie@holy-trinity.com if your child plans to participate in Rite 13.

The Epiphany Term of Christian Formation classes this morning at 10:15 a.m.:

- Gratefulness: Life as a Whole Hearted Journey: "Everything is a gift. The degree to which we are awake to this truth is a measure of our gratefulness, and gratefulness is a measure of our aliveness." - Brother David Steindl-Rast. In this class we will traverse the subtle terrain of "wholeheartedness" as both "antidote to exhaustion" and as what becomes available when we live with immediacy. We will explore what it means to move through life as a "pilgrim", letting go of what no longer serves us, taking nothing for granted, and being willing to show our gratefulness for our particular gifts by allowing them full expression in the world. Using the work of David Whyte, Br. David Steindl-Rast, and Lynne Twist as a spring board, we will explore this life changing subject through video, reflection, discussion and spiritual practice. Facilitated by the Revs. Greg Farrand and Ken Massey, Broome Hall.
- Living the Questions: Living the Questions features a video series that explores the best of today's theological thought, and invites conversation among participants where together we can strive to explore what's next for Christianity. In this class, 35 of today's leading religious voices will help guide us through three phases of exploration: • Invitation to Journey • Honoring Creation • Call to Covenant. Classes and discussions are facilitated by the Revs. Sarah Carver, Nathan Finnin, and Ken Massey, Roe Library
- History Behind the Headlines: (1/27-3/10). We live in an unsettled, complex and rapidly changing world. There continue to be surprising, and sometimes alarming, developments, shifts and challenges to the world we thought we knew. In this class, we will dig down into the historical roots of several of the current "hot spots." Led by Dr. Jeff Jones, Professor of History at UNCG, Haywood Duke Room.

Please keep in your prayers parishioners Joe Dzugan and Maureen Flak who are currently discerning calls to Holy Orders to the vocational diaconate. As part of their discernment, they will be interns for the next ten months at St Mary's and Holy Spirit Episcopal churches. Your prayers for clarity in their vocations are welcome. Please note that Maureen remains our parish nurse and is available for those who need to reach out.

We always welcome our teenagers 13 and older to help with childcare; please email marjorie@holy-trinity.com if you have an interested young person.

OUTREACH

The Need Box for February is designated for Family Services of the Piedmont.

Congregational Care Ministry — This ministry oversees visiting members of our Church family who may be in one of our hospitals. Because of confidentiality laws, we no longer have access to information telling us who is in the hospital. If you or a member of your family are admitted to one of the hospitals, we would like to be notified so we can visit and pray with you. Contact the Rev. Sarah Carver at 336-272-6149 ext 220 or sarah@holy-trinity.com.

Habitat for Humanity Volunteer Opportunities — There are some wonderful volunteer opportunities with our local Habitat for Humanity. If you would like to be involved in meaningful work in our community, please contact the Rev'd Nathan Finnin at nathan@holy-trinity.com.

Volunteers Needed — As some of you know, St. Barnabas Episcopal Church has been serving as a sanctuary for Juana Ortega, who came to the U.S in 1994 fleeing violence in Guatemala. Although St. Barnabas wouldn't turn down financial support to help offset the cost of remodeling and utilities, the primary need is for volunteers to help meet the requirement of having someone on property at all times. The shifts are: 9 a.m.-1 p.m., 1-5 p.m., 5-9:30 p.m., 9:30 p.m.-9 a.m. If you are interested in volunteering to help, please contact the Rev. Leslie Bland at 336-662-3902, or lrblan105@gmail.com.

Food collection for the month of February is for One Step Futher. Current needs include canned meat (tuna in water, chicken), chili beans, mixed vegetables, cereal, canned fruit (in juice or light syrup). Collection boxes are located in the narthex, receptionist lobby, and the elevator lobby. Healthy food items may be brought in bags to the church, but please do not bring empty bags, as they use up valuable space in the collection boxes. Food should be unopened, not expired, and not in glass containers. 74 lbs were collected for January- thank you!

Prayers in the Park Ministry – Lunch preparers are needed each Sunday. If you are looking for an opportunity to help neighbors in need in downtown Greensboro, your participation is welcomed and most appreciated. To sign up, visit www.holy-trinity.com/serve/outside-the-parish. On that webpage, you'll also seek a link to our Walmart and Amazon gift registries where you can purchase practical items to help - and they'll be shipped right to the church! For questions or more information about Prayers in the Park, please contact Ken Keeton at keetonken00@gmail.com. You can also follow us on Facebook at "Prayers in the Park".

You can register and pay for our classes for the Winter/Spring through the website. Classes begin the first week in February.

Practicing Presence with the Rev. Greg Farrand offered Tuesdays 6-8 p.m. February 5-April 9 or Thursdays 10 a.m. –noon February 7-April 11 (prerequisite The Inward Journey of Faith course). This class creates space to make a shift from an intellectual belief system to actual inner experience by activating the three centers of intelligence — grounded body, open heart, clear mind — and increasing our capacity to serve as instruments of God's compassion.

Call: The Outward Journey of Service with Ruth D. Anderson, PhD offered Tuesdays 6-8 p.m. February 12-April 16 or Thursdays 10 a.m.-noon. This class explores your call or purpose at your current stage of life through reflection, exploration of your gifts, engagement of spiritual practices, and dialogue with one another. We boldly ask: How do I or might I participate in God's dream for the world?

Also beginning in February Prayerful Yoga with Linda Hiatt and Writing from the Heart with Steve Cushman. Contemplative Prayer with Ruth D. Anderson meets each Wednesday at Noon in the Upper Room for 20 minutes of silence—feel free to drop in or come on a regular basis. Open to all.
