EPISCOPAL CHURCH

WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY!

We are so glad you have chosen to worship with us and hope you will return. You will find more information about worshipping with us on the white laminated card found hanging on the back of the pew. We also invite you to complete the visitor card and place it in the offering plate or give it to an usher so that we may further welcome you. If you would like to communicate a prayer request or pastoral need, please let us know on the back of these cards.

SUNDAY: FEBRUARY 17, 2019

In our Anglican cycle of prayer, we pray for the Church of the Province of Central Africa.

In our local cycle of prayer we pray for Jericho House. This is a residential transitional home serving men just release from prison. Their ministry assists former prisoners in stabilizing their lives through gainful employment and daily support, bible study, and providing transportation, clothing and other life necessities.

The flowers on the high altar are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Lucy Tydall Rice and other departed loved ones by Karen Savage.

The rose on the credence table is in celebration of the birth of Paisley Elizabeth Herman, daughter of Allyson and Christopher Herman.

We celebrate the baptism of Walter Wilcox Knight, son of Caroline and James Knight.

We pray for the souls of Sona Eskandar, mother of Fariba Reemes, Mildred Jones, mother of Laura Pierce and husband Dan Pierce and grandmother of Andrew Pierce, and Sandra Rudemann Beaumont and Jeffrey William Beaumont, mother and brother of Robert Beaumont and wife Rima Jarrah, grandmother and uncle of Georgette and Robert.

Nurseries for children four and under are open each Sunday. Nursery assignments are:

Infant & Toddler — Room 105

Preschool — Room 104

Music — The Prelude includes Howard Swanson's setting of A Death Song. The text, written by African-American poet Paul Laurence Dunbar (1872-1906), is performed by Rachel Sommers. The Offertory is Hassler's Alleluia laudem dicite (trans: Alleluia! Praise our God. All his servants, both small and great. For the Lord our God omnipotent reigns, alleluia. Let us be glad and rejoice and give him glory forever, alleluia). Lyndsey Swann, Brittany Griffin and Carter Timberlake sing the trio. The second piece is Handel's Since by Man came Death from Messiah. The Postlude is an improvisation on the hymn tune Engelberg. Please join us for our Black History Month Concert on February 24 at 4 p.m. in the church.

Lenten Covenant Groups Leaders Needed — We would love to have lay members serve as Lenten covenant group leaders. Groups meet for seven consecutive weeks beginning the first week of March. If you would like to serve as a covenant group leader, contact Rev. Mark Lile-King at mark@holy-trinity.com or 272-6149 x272.

Chapel Audio-Visual Update — We are pleased to announce that there is now updated audio-video equipment in the Worth Chapel. That means that the 9 a.m. service is broadcast in the Chapel for families whose children want a little more wiggle room during the service.

Holy Trinity Photo Directories are here! Pictorial directories can be picked up in the elevator lobby. Only those who had their photo taken by Divine Designs, the VanderVeens, or submitted a photo receive a free directory. If you want a to purchase a directory and did not have your photo taken or submitted, please contact Rev. Mark Lile-King at mark@holy-trinity.com or 336-271-6149.

EMC Update — Thank you to all of our parishioners who have made their 2019 pledges to the Every Member Canvass. Your generosity and faithfulness in giving has helped us raise $1,724,328, which is just over 90% of our goal. We are so grateful for your support. If you have pledged in the past, but have not yet pledged for 2019, your support is critical if we are to successfully reach our goal. We are edging closer by the day. Please make your Every Member Canvas pledge online by visiting www.holy-trinity.com/give/make-your-pledge/, mailing in your pledge card, or placing a card in the offering plate this Sunday. Every pledge counts.

The Epiphany Term of Christian Formation classes this morning at 10:15 a.m.:

- Gratefulness: Life as a Whole Hearted Journey: “Everything is a gift. The degree to which we are awake to this truth is a measure of our gratefulness, and gratefulness is a measure of our aliveness.” -Brother David Steindl-Rast. In this class we will traverse the subtle terrain of “wholeheartedness” as both “antidote to exhaustion” and as what becomes available when we live with immediacy. We will explore what it means to move through life as a “pilgrim”, letting go of what no longer serves us, taking nothing for granted, and being willing to show our gratefulness for our particular gifts by allowing them full expression in the world. Using the work of David Whyte, Br. David Steindl-Rast, and Lynne Twist as a spring board, we will explore this life changing subject through video, reflection, discussion and spiritual practice. Facilitated by the Revs. Greg Farrand and Ken Massey, Broome Hall.
- Living the Questions: Living the Questions features a video series that explores the best of today’s theological thought, and invites conversation among participants where together we can strive to explore what’s next for Christianity. In this class, 35 of today’s leading religious voices will help guide us through three phases of exploration: • Invitation to Journey • Honoring Creation • Call to Covenant. Classes and discussions are facilitated by the Revs. Sarah Carver, Nathan Finnin, and Ken Massey, Roe Library
- History Behind the Headlines: (1/27–3/10). We live in an unsettled, complex and rapidly changing world. There continue to be surprising, and sometimes alarming, developments, shifts and challenges to the world we thought we knew. In this class, we will dig down into the historical roots of several of the current “hot spots.” Led by Dr. Jeff Jones, Professor of History at UNCG, Haywood Duke Room.

2018 Year-End Tax Statements — Holy Trinity mailed the 2018 year-end tax summary statements last week per IRS regulations. If you have outstanding 2018 balances, for the Capital Gifts Initiative or the 2018 EMC, they will be reflected on this statement. Please note that we have a few unidentified stock gifts given at the end of 2018. Be aware that, if you make a stock gift to Holy Trinity, confidentiality rules do not permit your broker to identify you as the source of the gift, and so, if you do not inform the church, we have no way of knowing from whom the gift has come or its proper designation. If you have made a gift not shown on your statement, please contact Annie Slaughter, annie@holy-trinity.com or 336-272-6197, and we will correct our records.

Stock Gift Information — Thank you for those who have expressed interest in making a gift of securities to Holy Trinity. Please share these instructions with your broker to help facilitate your gift and contact Annie Slaughter, annie@holy-trinity.com or 336-272-6197, with any questions.

*Brokerage: Stifel Nicolaus, Acct Name: Holy Trinity Episcopal Church
Acct No: 6253-4335, DTC Number: 0793, Stifel Contact: Karen Ingram, karen.ingram@stifel.com*

It is very important that you notify Holy Trinity of your stock gift in a timely manner. Please provide the following information to the church to ensure that your gift is credited properly:

- Donor’s name
- Stock information (number of shares, name of stock and symbol),
- Originating brokerage firm
- Designation of gift (pledge fulfilment, capital campaign, etc.)

Our Rector, Tim Patterson, will be taking some sabbatical leave time January 20 – March 20.

Flu Season — If you are concerned about the spread of the flu, we remind you during the passing of peace that a slight nod or bow of the head acknowledges you care for those around you and you are welcome to partake of only the bread at communion. In our tradition, crossing your arms over your chest when the cup is presented indicates to the chalice-bearer that you will not drink from it. The words of administration will still be said (“The blood of Christ, the cup of salvation”). The bread alone conveys fullness of grace.

Be a Wednesday Night Dinner Host — Wednesday Night Dinners are a great place to enjoy fellowship, make new friends, and enjoy a delicious meal. We’re looking for a few people to serve as dinner hosts. Each week from 5-7 p.m., hosts welcome guests, collect money, assist the kitchen staff as needed, and enjoy a FREE meal. If you would like to be a part of this incredible hospitality ministry, please contact Rev. Mark Lile-King at mark@holy-trinity.com or 272-6149 x272.

Join Holy Trinity’s Usher Ministry — Holy Trinity Ushers are an important part of Gateway’s ministry of welcome and hospitality. Ushers warmly welcome worshippers, distribute bulletins, introduce newcomers to the Holy Trinity community, collect offerings, assist worshippers during the Eucharist, and keep the sanctuary orderly. Their ministry creates an open and comfortable worship environment where people can experience God’s movement in their lives. If you would like to join this vital ministry or if you have questions, please contact Rev. Mark Lile-King at mark@holy-trinity.com or 272-6149 x272.

WEDNESDAY NIGHTS AT HOLY TRINITY

We offer a full program for those interested in deepening their faith through worship, fellowship and study during the week:

- TWIGS (Those With Infinitely Greater Sense): Open to all those 60 years of age and “moving forward,” TWIGS meets for lively Bible study and discussion. 4–5 p.m. in Roe Library.
- Holy Spirit Choir: Open to children PreK through 1st grade, the Holy Spirit Choir provides an introduction to basic musicianship through fun songs and game. 4–4:25 p.m. in the Choir Rehearsal Room.
- Good Shepherd Choir (Grades 2–3) and All Saints Choir (Grades 4 and above): These choirs focus on age-appropriate skills of basic musicianship and preparation for services. 4:30–5:10 p.m. in the Choir Rehearsal Room.
- Wednesday Night Supper: These family-friendly meals are served at a cost of $7 per person, with a family cap of $20. Children 8–12 eat for $3 and 7 and under are free. 5–7 p.m. in the Haywood Duke Room. Take out available.
- Stillpoint Wednesday Night Worship: Each Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. in All Saints Chapel, we celebrate the Holy Eucharist with contemplative music in the Taizé tradition, followed by an opportunity for a 15–20 minute period of silent contemplative prayer. 5:30 p.m.
- Kids of the Kingdom Childcare on Wednesday evenings, 5–7 p.m., Parish House upstairs.

Join us for Thursday Lunches in Haywood Duke Room, 12–1:30 p.m..

Playground note — Great news! The playground is finished and available for play!

Kids of the Kingdom Childcare – Important Guidelines — Following Wednesday Night Supper we welcome our young parishioners (ages 3-12) to join the Kids of the Kingdom upstairs in the Parish House for big wheels, scooters and arts and crafts. Infants and toddlers up to age three who need a slower pace can go to the nursery in Room 105; we ask that older children please respect this quiet space and play upstairs. We always welcome our teenagers 13 and older to help with childcare; please email marjorie@holy-trinity.com if you have an interested young person.

COMING UP

Dave Ramsey Financial Peace University — Wednesdays, February 6-April 3, 6–7:30 p.m., Café. Did you know that 89% of the people in a typical American congregation don't have a financial safety net? Shocked? I was too. But there's HOPE! And that hope is Financial Peace University. FPU is a nine-lesson course taught by Dave Ramsey and his team of financial experts. With FPU, our members will learn step by step how to handle money using biblical wisdom and common sense. Through life-changing videos, online tools and resources, and group accountability, our church members will learn how to create and stick to a budget, save for emergencies, pay off debt, and plan for the future. The class will be led by co-leaders Nick Klett and Connie Wojtek. For more information and to signup, contact Nick Klett at nick.klett@gmail.com or 336-508-6591.

You're invited! Please join the Outreach Committee in the Fisher House Cafe at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, February 20 for a conversation with Steve Hayes, the Executive Director of the Guilford Nonprofit Consortium. This conversation will be a valuable experience as we continue to find ways to engage our community and meaningful outreach.

Our Daily Bread: Men and Daily Faith — You are invited to a one-day program for men, scheduled for Saturday, February 23 at Holy Trinity. Coffee at 8:30 a.m., and we will begin at 9 a.m. Join us for stories, activities, the Rev. Ken Massey speaking during a provided box lunch, some writing of experiences and gentle breathwork with Summer Estes, ending at 5 p.m. Contact Cameron Cooke at 336-603-6709 or rcamcooke@yahoo.com or David Stokes at 502-523-6396 or dstokes56@bellsouth.net for more information. To register, send the reservation form included in this week's ePistle and an all-inclusive fee of $75, to Annie Slaughter at the Church, with "Men's Day" on the memo line.

Your Health Insurance Billing Questions answered February 27 6-7:30 p.m. in Roe Library — Do you have bill from health insurance you do not understand? Do you have Medicare enrollment questions? Holy Trinity parishioner, Debi Curl will be available February 27 to help you understand your explanation of benefits and your billing, as well as the complicated world of Medicare. Debi brings 30 years of healthcare experience with her and currently serves as a patient advocate for United Health Care. Please bring your bills and your explanation of benefits or remittance paperwork with you for the evening's discussion.

ECW Retreat, March 8 and 9 — All Episcopal Women of Holy Trinity are invited to gather for a time of friendship, reflection and fun. Our theme is Spark Joy! and we will be welcoming Lisa Lundeen, Lead Chaplain at Cone Health Cancer Center as our keynote speaker. Ms. Lundeen will be talking to us about discovering the sacred. Friday evening will be focused on dinner together and our speaker, while Saturday's will involve worship and break-out sessions. Please register online in this week's ePistle. The cost of the retreat is $65. If you have questions, please contact Julie Longmire Dauray at julie.longmiredauray@gmail.com. We look forward to seeing you there!

An Evening in the Holy Land — March 10 at 6 p.m. Join us for a "Stay at Home Pilgrimage" to the Holy Land. Our evening will include a wonderful Middle Eastern dinner and a dynamic presentation "Walking in the Footsteps of Jesus." The evening will be hosted by the Rev. Greg Farrand and the speaker will be Dr. Jason Myers, professor of New Testament at Greensboro College. Cost is $15.00 made payable to Holy Trinity. Bring your own wine/beverage. Questions? Contact Annie@holy-trinity.com.

Mystic France Pilgrimage — Dec 1-10, 2019. Our program begins and ends in Paris – the city of light – where we will visit Notre Dame and Saint-Chapelle as well as explore many of the artistic treasures of this city. We will also travel to St-Malo and Mont-Saint-Michele to explore the mysterious island-village that rises high above the surrounding tidal flats. We will experience the beauty of Chartres and walk the city together. We will visit the beautiful coastal port of Honfleur and commemorate the Allied landing on the beaches of Normandy as well as numerous other significant and spiritual sights. This will be a bus based pilgrimage and a non-refundable deposit to reserve a spot is $800.00. Spaces are limited and deposits will be accepted starting February 10. To learn more visit www.holytrinitypilgrim.com or email Meredith@holy-trinity.com.

OUTREACH

The Need Box for February is designated for Family Services of the Piedmont.

Assistance to SNAP Recipients — Due to the government shutdown, recipients of SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) may not get their next installation until March 9. Members of Episcopal Church of the Holy Spirit are hosting a Community Meal and Open Pantry for food and diapers on Sunday, February 24, 1-3 p.m. Please consider donating non-perishable food items and diapers at the Church of the Holy Spirit (3910 Yanceyville St, Greensboro 27405) Wednesdays between 2-5 p.m. or Sundays 12:30 - 2 p.m. For those who consider helping the day of the event, please email The Rev. Audra Abt at audraabt@gmail.com.

Congregational Care Ministry — This ministry oversees visiting members of our Church family who may be in one of our hospitals. Because of confidentiality laws, we no longer have access to information telling us who is in the hospital. If you or a member of your family are admitted to one of the hospitals, we would like to be notified so we can visit and pray with you. Contact the Rev. Sarah Carver at 336-272-6149 ext 220 or sarah@holy-trinity.com.

Habitat for Humanity Volunteer Opportunities — There are some wonderful volunteer opportunities with our local Habitat for Humanity. If you would like to be involved in meaningful work in our community, please contact the Rev'd Nathan Finnin at nathan@holy-trinity.com.

Volunteers Needed — As some of you know, St. Barnabas Episcopal Church has been serving as a sanctuary for Juana Ortega, who came to the U.S in 1994 fleeing violence in Guatemala. Although St. Barnabas wouldn't turn down financial support to help offset the cost of remodeling and utilities, the primary need is for volunteers to help meet the requirement of having someone on property at all times. The shifts are: 9 a.m.-1 p.m., 1-5 p.m., 5-9:30 p.m., 9:30 p.m.-9 a.m. If you are interested in volunteering to help, please contact the Rev. Leslie Bland at 336-662-3902, or lrblan105@gmail.com.

Food collection for the month of February is for One Step Futher. Current needs include canned meat (tuna in water, chicken), chili beans, mixed vegetables, cereal, canned fruit (in juice or light syrup). Collection boxes are located in the narthex, receptionist lobby, and the elevator lobby. Healthy food items may be brought in bags to the church, but please do not bring empty bags, as they use up valuable space in the collection boxes. Food should be unopened, not expired, and not in glass containers. 74 lbs were collected for January- thank you!

Prayers in the Park Ministry — Lunch preparers are needed each Sunday. If you are looking for an opportunity to help neighbors in need in downtown Greensboro, your participation is welcomed and most appreciated. To sign up, visit www.holy-trinity.com/serve/outside-the-parish. On that webpage, you'll also seek a link to our Walmart and Amazon gift registries where you can purchase practical items to help - and they'll be shipped right to the church! For questions or more information about Prayers in the Park, please contact Ken Keeton at keetonken00@gmail.com. You can also follow us on Facebook at "Prayers in the Park".

HOLY TRINITY DAY SCHOOL

Holy Trinity Day School is now enrolling for the 2019-2020 school year. A short registration form is available on the school website, www.htds.org under the Enrollment tab. Holy Trinity Day School prides itself on nurturing the total development of children ages 3 months through five years. Gifted teachers give individual attention to every child and plan classroom activities that are purposeful and meaningful. For more information or to schedule a tour, call Julie Buie, Director, at 336-275-7726 or email at julie@holy-trinity.com.

SECOND BREATH CENTER

The Servant Leadership School has a new website, www.secondbreathcenter.com. With a grant from Trinity Church Wall Street, the Servant Leadership School has developed a new website, a new name, and new online offerings (coming soon). You can register and pay for our classes for the Winter/Spring through the website. Classes begin the first week in February.

Call: The Outward Journey of Service with Ruth D. Anderson, PhD offered Tuesdays 6-8 p.m. February 12-April 16 or Thursdays 10 a.m.-noon. This class explores your call or purpose at your current stage of life through reflection, exploration of your gifts, engagement of spiritual practices, and dialogue with one another. We boldly ask: How do I or might I participate in God's dream for the world?

Contemplative Prayer with Ruth D. Anderson meets each Wednesday at Noon in the Upper Room for 20 minutes of silence—feel free to drop in or come on a regular basis. Open to all.

For more information or to register and pay online, go to www.secondbreathcenter.com.

BIRTHDAYS

Watch over your beloved children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
