

Holy Trinity Lenten Music Series

12:15–12:45 pm, Sanctuary | Wednesdays, March 4–April 8.

Holy Trinity offers Lenten musical meditations, which are designed to enrich your personal experience during Lent, providing a time for you to leave the busyness of your day and hear some beautiful music.

The free programs will feature musicians of Holy Trinity and include music, readings, and images.

March 4

Amanda Matthews, violin, plays music of Vivaldi, Mozart, Bach, and Satie, accompanied by Ben Brafford. Organist Allegra Gicla performs hymn settings of Michael Burkhardt.

March 11

Violinist Susan Gallimore and soprano Mandy Ryan perform. Susan will play Celebration by Lovland; Sonata in F by Vivaldi, and Sonata No 10 by Corelli. Mandy sings Hear My Prayer by Moses Hogan. Ben Brafford performs music of Gabriel Faure.

March 18

Eve Hubbard, violin, plays Six Folk Songs in English Folk Songs by Ralph Vaughan Williams (1926). Ben Brafford plays selections from J. S. Bach's English Suite in D Minor and the Adagio from Mozart's 2nd Piano Sonata.

March 25

The recorder ensemble Byrdsong performs The Lamentations of Jeremiah (1560, 1569) by Thomas Tallis (c. 1505-1585).

April 1

Amanda Matthews, violin, plays music of Vivaldi, Pugnani, Bach, and Mendelssohn. Soprano Mandy Ryan performs a medley of Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen and Give Me Jesus. Ben Brafford performs music from Grieg's Holberg Suite.

April 8

Organist Allegra Gicla plays Charles Callahan's settings of hymn tunes, and she is joined by violist Jane York and cellist Diane Bonds.

