WELCOME TO HOLY TRINITY! WE'RE GLAD YOU ARE HERE!

We are so glad you have chosen to worship with us and hope you will return. You will find more information about worshipping with us on the white laminated card found hanging on the back of the pew. We also invite you to complete the visitor card and place it in the offering plate or give it to an usher so that we may further welcome you. If you would like to communicate a prayer request or pastoral need, please let us know on the back of these cards.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2019

In our Anglican cycle of prayer, we pray for the Church in the Province of the West Indies.

In our local cycle of prayer we pray for Greensboro Urban Ministry. Greensboro Urban Ministries works in the greater Greensboro area to express the love of God to people in need by offering emergency financial assistance, food assistance, emergency and transitional shelter, and rapid re-housing.

The flowers on the high altar are given by Mebane Ham to the glory of God and in honor of all her family, both chosen and by blood.

The greens on the church high altar during the week are given to the glory of God.

Nurseries for children four and under are open each Sunday. Nursery assignments are:

Infant & Toddler – Room 105

Preschool – Room 104

We welcome the Rt. Rev. Porter Taylor, retired Bishop of Western North Carolina. A native of Asheville N.C., he holds a Ph.D. in theology and literature from Emory University. He received his M.Div. from The School of Theology at Sewanee and served at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Franklin, Tennessee. Currently he teaches at Wake Forest University Divinity School where he serves as visiting professor for Episcopal Studies. He is preaching today and will be teaching Sunday School on October 20 and 27.

Music — At the 8 and 11:15 a.m. services, a Prelude of English organ music will be performed by organist Allegra Gicla. Our Children's choirs will sing (and chant) at the 9 a.m. service. Mandy Ryan and Lee Kirkman will lead the congregation in a setting of Psalm 119. The Offertory is a contemporary piece titled Come and Find the Quiet Center, featuring soloist Emily Mote and conductor Wesley McCleary-Small. During Communion, our Taize pieces continue with two new pieces composed in memory of The Rev. John Broome, who served as Rector at Holy Trinity from 1972–1994. The Postlude is an improvisation of the hymn tune Leoni – Praise to the Living God.

Hymns — Please let us know if you have a favorite hymn in our hymnal, and provide a short description why it is a favorite. It could be a meaningful family story, a symbol of a spiritual breakthrough, a hymn tune you using week long, or a hymn you just enjoy singing and hearing at church services. Let us know at ben-hrms@triad.rr.com. We will endeavor to include your favorite hymn in our music at church and share your story with the Parish.

Thanksgiving's In The Bag — Our annual Thanksgiving's In The Bag project has begun. Beginning today, bags and lists will be available after each service, in the narthex and in the downstairs receptionist lobby. Please purchase the items on the list and bring the filled bag back to the church as soon as possible. All bags must be returned by Sunday, November 17. Money to help defray the cost of purchasing 300 turkeys may be placed in the offering plate (note "Turkey" on your gift), need box or online under Give/Thanksgiving's In the Bag.

Thank You CROP Walk Supporters! Many thanks to all those who supported this year's CROP Hunger Walk, either by walking last Sunday with several thousand others, or by your generous donations to help end hunger in Greensboro and around the world. We have received over $1860 from Holy Trinity parishioners, families and friends! With these donations, you have helped to reduce hunger and provide strength and nourishment to many needy families.

Register for Sunday School — Please follow the link in The ePistle or here: <https://form.jotform.com/ashleyholytrinity/sunday-school-registration-for-2019> to register your child(ren) for Sunday school (Pre-K – 12th grade) or the Nursery (Birth – Three) for 2019-20. This will help us create rosters and have updated and accurate information in our data base.

Cursillo Group Reunion — A Group Reunion meets Thursdays at 5 p.m. in the Lineweaver Center. Anyone interested in being in a small group to share our spiritual journey is welcome. Contact Cameron Cooke at 336.617.7517 or cameroncooke539@gmail.com or David Stokes, (502) 523-6396 or dstokes56@bellsouth.net if you want more information.

The Green Term 2 of Christian Formation classes this morning at 10:15 a.m.:

- Storytelling as Evangelism: John Shea says "We turn our pain into narrative so we can bear it; we turn our ecstasy into narrative so we can prolong it; we tell our stories to live." The premise of this session is that we make meaning through stories. As Christians, therefore, we seek to locate our biographical story within the context of Christ's never-ending story of death and resurrection. Our personal narrative only makes complete sense when it is connected to the sacred narrative. The way we share the Good News is not by selling a church product; it's by telling the story of what God has done in our own lives and then inviting others to share their stories. This has been so since the Acts of the Apostles. Porter Taylor will teach about how to connect one's stories to the never ending story of salvation. Led by Bishop Porter Taylor, retired bishop of the Diocese of Western North Carolina.
- History Behind the Headlines: We live in an unsettled, complex and rapidly changing world. There continues to be surprising, and sometimes alarming, developments, shifts and challenges to the world we thought we knew. In this class, we will dig down into the historical roots of several of the current "hot spots." Led by Dr. Jeff Jones, Professor of History at UNCG, Haywood Duke
- Holy Trinity 101: Making Sense of the Bible: Holy Trinity 101 meets once monthly and is great place for newcomers and members alike to connect for authentic faith conversation and to learn how people at Holy Trinity practice "an inward journey of faith and an outward journey of service." Rev. Mark Lile-King will lead the conversation in Roe Library. Bring your Bibles! Hosted by Gateway Ministry. Join us!
