ABOUT THE CLERGY

The Rev. Timothy J. Patterson, Rector • Tim earned his B.A. from Duke University and his M.Div. from Duke Divinity School. After varied experiences working with autistic young people, serving as a Hospice volunteer, completing two years of Clinical Pastoral education at Duke Medical Center, and working over five years as a psychiatric counselor, Tim followed the call into ordained ministry. He returned to school at General Theological Seminary in New York City to fulfill the ordination requirement for Anglican studies and completed the two year program in Spiritual Direction at the Center for Christian Spirituality. Tim came to Greensboro in 1989 to serve as Assistant to the Rector at Holy Trinity, being ordained as a priest in 1990. He was called as Rector of Holy Trinity at the end of 1996. Tim has also taken a leadership role in ecumenical ministries in the community, being primary founder of the Guilford Regional AIDS Interfaith Network (GRAIN), The Barnabas Network and The Servant Leadership School of Greensboro. Tim's wife, Kathleen Forbes, is an educational administrator at UNCG.

The Rev. Ginny Bain Inman, Associate Rector • Ginny was born and raised in central Florida. She graduated from Randolph-Macon Woman's College in Virginia, with degrees in Politics and Religion. Ginny continued to explore the relationship between culture and religion by simultaneously studying law and faith at Vanderbilt University, graduating with a law degree (JD) and a divinity degree (M.Div.). She practiced corporate law for several years before answering an unrelenting call to the priesthood. Ginny has served churches in Washington, D.C., Winston-Salem, N.C. and Augusta, Georgia and is a life-time lover of Kanuga. Ginny serves on the diocesan committee for Constitution and Canons and the Nominating Committee for the next Bishop and chairs the Task Force for Christian Formation. Ginny is married to Stephen, a fellow Vanderbilt law alum, who works as an Assistant U.S. Attorney. In her most daring undertaking to date, she is the mother of two young sons Eli and Sam, who spend most of their days as superheroes.

The Rev. Sarah Carver, Associate Rector • Sarah was born and grew up in Northern Michigan. She graduated in 2000 from Alma College with a degree in Biology. A short time later, she began discerning a call to ministry and eventually graduated from the General Theological Seminary in 2007 with her M. Div. and began her ordained ministry in the Diocese of Eastern Michigan as Missioner to Young Adults. When parish ministry became Sarah's vocational focus, she led a small parish in Midland, Michigan and began studying clinical social work at Michigan State. In 2013, Sarah graduated with her Masters in Social Work and worked bi-vocationally between the parish and the hospital as an oncology social worker. In addition to her local work, Sarah also served the diocese as Chair of the Commission on Ministry, and as a member of INC055, a task force appointed by General Convention in 2009 to work with the United Thank Offering. Sarah has continued her work with the UTO as an appointed member. Sarah is married to Peter, a polymer scientist with Eastman Chemical, and together they are raising their daughter, Elora. In 2014 they moved to Greensboro and shortly after, Sarah began her work in the Diocese of North Carolina. Sarah and Peter have been delighted to get to know their new community, and pleased that they only rarely have to shovel snow.

The Rev. Greg Farrand, Associate Rector • Greg spent the majority of his childhood in Japan and Taiwan returning to the States as a teenager and attending St. Andrew's Episcopal Prep School in Bethesda, MD. His parents, dyed in the wool Episcopalians, raised him in this tradition but as an act of teenage rebellion, Greg became a Presbyterian. He moved to NC to attend UNC-Greensboro and married his wife Beth a week after graduation in 1994. They moved to Uganda, East Africa to serve a number of years as missionaries then returned to NC to begin studies at Reformed Theological Seminary and serve as Director of College Ministries for a Presbyterian Church. After graduation and ordination in the Presbyterian Church in 2002, Greg planted a church in downtown Greensboro and served as Senior Pastor for almost nine years. Subsequently Greg and Beth served as Co-Executive Directors of Selah Spiritual Formation, a non-profit focused on spiritual direction and retreat leadership. In 2011, Greg was invited to join the staff at Holy Trinity to serve the Youth and Young Adults. Through this process, he returned to the Episcopal fold of his youth to his parents great delight. He has an amazing wife and three teenage sons who keep him young.

The Rev. Nathan Finnin, Associate Rector • Originally from Boston, Nathan was raised in Wilmington, NC with his twin sister. He is a 2004 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a BA in Philosophy and a BA in Political Science, and a 2008 graduate of Yale University with the Masters of Divinity degree. Nathan and his wife Kaitlin enjoy live music, good books, and spending time with their son, Beckett, and English Bulldog, Dan.

Children and Family Ministries seek to nurture your child's relationship with God through opportunities that introduce the life, love and example of Jesus. Our aim is to partner with families in the parent/child journey of discovery towards a life of discipleship and faith. Children bring particular gifts of joy and wonder to the church. As children begin their walk with God, we hope to nurture this vital relationship with encouragement and guidance. We also understand the significance of encouraging meaningful friendships among children and creating faith-filled bonds between parents, leaders and children. Children's values and beliefs are first formed within the context of their family and part of our mission is to support parents as they develop and strengthen their own relationship with God.

Sunday Morning Family Worship Options

Families with young children who find it difficult to sit still through the worship service are invited to worship in All Saints Chapel at the 9 a.m. service. A live video feed allows everyone to follow along with the service while giving younger children a bit more freedom to move about. All worshippers in the Chapel are invited to join us in the Church for Eucharist. For families with children, green Holy Trinity worship bags are available for our youngest members from the baskets in the Narthex and outside All Saints Chapel. These bags contain a variety of quiet ways to occupy small hands. Please return the bags and their reusable contents to the baskets after the service.

Nursery Care: A warm and welcoming environment demonstrates God's love to our youngest children. Nurseries are located on the first floor of the Parish House.

Infant & Toddler-Room 105 Preschool-Room 103

Nurseries for children ages 4 and younger are offered Sundays from 8:45 a.m. –12:30 p.m. Preferred Childcare, Inc. provides childcare service. Nurseries are also provided by request during select events.

Children's Chapel: Offered during the 9 a.m. service for children in Pre-K–2nd grade. Children may be dropped off from 8:45–9 a.m. on the second floor of the Parish House in Room 213. Children hear a Bible story based on the Gospel lesson for the day, sing songs and pray. The children take turns serving as acolytes, crucifer and ushers. Children attending Children's Chapel join their parents in the Sanctuary at the Peace for Eucharist.

Communion Education

Communion Education for first and second graders is a part of our milestone ministry. On Sunday, February 5 and Sunday, February 12 at 10:15 a.m., first and second graders will have special lessons on the Eucharist during their regular Sunday school class. On Sunday, February 19 the Rev. Nathan Finnin and Marjorie Donnelly will lead a family-friendly conversation with the children and their parents about the Eucharist and its symbols. The preparation culminates on Sunday, February 26 at the 9 a.m. service with a Celebration of Communion for the children and their parents.

Sunday School Classes & Youth Group

Sunday school classes are held from 10:15–11 a.m. Three-year-olds hear the simple stories about Jesus in a warm and nurturing learning environment. Children in Pre-K through fourth grade use the Godly Play method of Christian formation led by trained teachers. The focus of Godly Play is learning the sacred stories of our faith in such a way that the stories are inscribed on the children's hearts.

Fifth through Eighth graders meet on Sunday mornings in the Youth House, 10:15–11 a.m., using age-appropriate curriculum from "Feasting on the Word" based on Sunday's lectionary reading. To meet the changing needs of Ninth through Twelfth graders, we offer several options, including both study and service. On Sunday mornings, these older youth can join the rotation as volunteers in Children's Chapel (8:45–9:45 a.m.) or as doorkeepers in our Three-Year through Fourth Grade Sunday school program or they can attend one of the adult classes. To volunteer, contact marjorie@holy-trinity.com.

Holy Trinity Day School provides quality early education for young children ages 3 months to 5 years through play-based learning and low teacher-student ratios. Founded in 1954, HTDS is dedicated to creating a safe, enriching, spiritually-grounded learning environment that educates the whole child, supports the individual gifts of each child, and fosters a sense of caring and compassion. Children 3 years of age and older attend weekly chapel and Godly Play classes where they engage with scripture through music, movement, and story. Registration for the 2017-2018 school year begins in January. Learn more at www.htds.org. Contact Julie Buie, Director, 336-275-7726 or julie@holy-trinity.com.

THE LABYRINTH

You are invited on a modern-day pilgrimage at Holy Trinity's outdoor labyrinth, which is adjacent to the sanctuary in the columbarium garden. By walking the labyrinth alone or in a guided group, you will experience a kind of body prayer or walking meditation that quiets your mind, allowing your spirit to become more receptive to the still small voice of God.

Labyrinth Keepers: The Labyrinth Keepers is an ecumenical group dedicated to providing education and opportunities for people to experience transformation through walking the labyrinth. The group meets the first Monday of each month at 4:30 p.m. in the Smyth Library. The Labyrinth Keepers plan, advertise, train and provide facilitators for a variety of community-wide labyrinth offerings. Contact Libby Haile at hailemartin@aol.com for more information.

Spring Equinox Walk with Yogic Meditation Tools: Live Music By Sandy Blocker
We invite you to walk this path of the heart in community as we celebrate the Season of Light. There will be a brief blessing and an introduction to some yogic meditation tools by Mona Flynn at 4 p.m., followed by uninterrupted walking and live music. In case of inclement weather, the walk will be cancelled.
Saturday, March 18, 4-5:30 p.m.

Holy Week Walking Meditation Using the Labyrinth: During this solemn week, experience the labyrinth's sacred pattern and path. As you symbolically make the walk with Christ to Jerusalem, use the labyrinth as a tool for prayer. A Holy Week reflection facilitated by one of the labyrinth keepers will precede each walk. Attend any or all of these walks. Bring a journal if desired. In case of inclement weather, the walks will be cancelled.
Monday–Thursday, April 10-13, 12:15–1 p.m. and Good Friday, April 14, 11–noon.

World Labyrinth Day Walk: World Labyrinth Day is designed to bring people from all over the planet in a celebration of the labyrinth as a practice for peace. Our labyrinth community will "Walk as One at 1:00." Be part of a global rolling wave of peaceful energy as the earth turns. In case of inclement weather, the walk will be cancelled.
Saturday, May 6, 1 p.m.

ADULT FORMATION

Looking for a way to connect with others and deepen your spiritual journey? Sunday morning adult Christian Formation classes, offered most weeks at 10:15 a.m., are the perfect way to find a “small” church within the larger one. Make friends, learn about the history of our faith, and find new ways to apply spiritual lessons to your everyday life.

Epiphany Term: January 22–February 26

Living Members Class: Each Sunday at the close of the Holy Eucharist II, we pray a prayer of thanksgiving, “Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ...” What does it mean to be a “living member” of the Body of Christ and of this particular faith community? In this class we will explore core issues of Christian identity, rhythms and dynamics of Christian living, our corporate and individual callings, and the meaning of membership in a community of faith. Led by the Rev. Greg Farrand, the Rev. Ginny Inman and the Rev. Mark Lile-King, Broome Hall.

Then and Now: The Rise of Populism in Historical Context: The world is changing dramatically before our eyes with the refugee crisis in Europe and the Brexit vote in Great Britain last summer followed by the surprise election of Donald Trump in this country. Where is it all coming from and where is it likely to take us? What historical precedents can we draw from to understand the sudden rise of populism (again) on the world stage? This six-week course will examine the rise of populism mostly in the 20th century in places as far afield as Italy, Germany, and Argentina before wrapping up with a look at populism in our world today. Led by Dr. Jeff Jones, UNCG Professor of History, Haywood Duke Room.

Lent Term: March 5–April 2

Voices of Hope and Reconciliation: Lent invites us to hear again the promises of God and the call of the prophets to be agents of transformation. Join us as we listen together for inspiring voices that are pointing to new ways of following Christ and nurturing life-giving community. Through engaging TED talks, dynamic speakers, and group discussion, we will explore practical ways to be agents of hope and reconciliation in the world. Led by the clergy team, Broome Hall.

US-Russian Relations: 2017 & Beyond: Following on the heels of the first session on populism, this course picks up the thread to specifically focus on US-Russian relations in the administrations of Vladimir Putin and Donald Trump. Following an overview of US-Russian relations in recent history, we will delve into the current situation to understand Russia’s role in our own national politics and in the increasing complexities of our world today. Led by Dr. Jeff Jones, UNCG Professor of History, Haywood Duke Room.

Easter Term: April 23–May 21 (except May 14)

The Divine Dance: What if changing our perception of God has the power to change everything? God is not what many people think. Visions of an angry, distant moral scorekeeper or a supernatural Santa Claus handing out cosmic lottery tickets to those who attend the right church or say the right prayer dominate our culture. For many others, God has become irrelevant or simply unbelievable. Using Richard Rohr and Mike Morrell's book The Divine Dance, we will explore the early Christian image of the Trinity: perichoresis, a circle dance. The unending flow of giving and receiving between Father, Son, and Spirit is the pattern of reality. God is not only a dancer, but the Dance itself! Join us as we engage this new lens for transformative experiences with God. Led by the Rev. Ginny Inman and the Rev. Greg Farrand, Broome Hall.

Inquirer's Class: Designed for newcomers to the Episcopal Church as well as those seeking a "refresher course," or those wishing to renew their faith commitment, this class will provide an overview of the history, theology, worship and practice of the Episcopal Church. The course is part of the preparation for adults seeking Confirmation or Reception into the Episcopal Church, but all are welcome. Led by the Rev. Nathan Fynn, Roe Library.

Confirmation is June 11.

Aliens and Strangers: We will explore this core biblical theme in a variety of contexts – from what the Old Testament text says about how to treat the foreigners among them to the call for Christians, in Hebrews, to welcome strangers for they may be angels in disguise. Far from the common human posture of xenophobia, fear of strangers, our scriptures reveal a surprising and counter-intuitive call to xenophilia, love of strangers. Led by Dr. Sandie Gravett, Professor of Philosophy and Religion, Appalachian State University, Haywood Duke Room.

The Sacred Garden Bookstore

Fisher Ave., the Sacred Garden Bookstore, with its adjacent café and meditation garden with a gazebo, benches, outdoor chimes and a fountain, is an inviting sacred space to come rest, read and reflect. SERVANT LEADERSHIP

The Servant Leadership School of Greensboro continues to offer classes for spiritual formation at Holy Trinity, for both our own members and the broader ecumenical community. Please pick up a school brochure at church information stations or visit our website at www.servantleadergreensboro.com for more details.

Core Classes

Communion: Prayer and the Practice of Presence:

Prerequisite: Servant Leadership I. In this course, we explore spiritual practices that can help us to deepen our experience of communion with God and become more “present” in our everyday lives in order to become increasingly transparent to Divine Presence. The central emphasis of this course will be establishing and/or deepening your own daily spiritual practice. We will use Cynthia Bourgeault’s book Centering Prayer and Inner Awakening as a guide, and draw support and strength from the class as a community of practice. Please register before the first class.

Tuesdays, 6–8 p.m. February 14- March 21 (led by the Rev. Gregory Farrand) or Thursdays, 10 a.m.–noon February 9-March 16 (led by the Rev. Timothy Patterson & the Rev. Gregory Farrand.)

Compassion: Awakening the Intelligence of the Heart:

Prerequisite: Servant Leadership I. Compassion is at the very heart of the teaching of Jesus. Compassion flows abundantly in our own lives when our hearts are awakened to the presence of God. Recent scientific research supports the understanding of pre-modern religious traditions that the human heart is more than just a “pump,” but a center of profound emotional and spiritual intelligence, and the instrument by which we can bring our lives into alignment with Divine energy, love, and compassion. Drawing upon research from the Heartmath Institute® and classic teachings and practices of the Christian tradition, this class will support students in an experiential process of awakening the intelligence of our own hearts, so that we can increasingly serve as instruments of God’s compassion in the world.

Tuesdays, 6–8 p.m., March 28–April 4 & April 18–May 9 (led by the Rev. Gregory Farrand) or Thursdays 10 a.m.–12 p.m., March 23–April 6 & April 20–May 4 (led by the Rev. Timothy Patterson & the Rev. Gregory Farrand.)

Companion Classes

Let Your Life Speak: Designing & Living a Life You Love: When we find ourselves at a crossroads, in a rut, or facing a time of transition, we have the opportunity to craft a new life vision. Drawing from the wisdom of Parker Palmer and utilizing a variety of interactive teaching and group coaching methods, this course will help you to reflect on your current life status, explore your unique life vision, and begin to craft a clear and compelling path for living into the life you've always imagined. Through this work, participants will build a network of support and continuing growth for moving into the next stage of their lives. Led by: Carol Lucas, MPH, BSN and certified Health & Wellness coach.
Mondays, 10 a.m.—noon., February 6 to March 13 (6 weeks)

Making Room: Welcome as a Way of Life: Drawing from Jean Vanier's writings and other sources, this course draws attention to community, care, and what it means to be and become human in the context of "welcome." We will look at how welcome can be a visible expression of genuine hospitality, friendship, and human growth, offering an alternative way of conceiving and naming the social forming dynamics within Christian community. We'll give special attention to how welcome occurs within the communities of L'Arche, a federation of 149 communities in 37 countries worldwide, where people with and without intellectual disabilities live and work together as peers. Led by: Dr. Benjamin Wall, Assistant Professor of Religion and Ethics at Greensboro College.
Mondays, 6—7:30 p.m., February 6 to March 6 (5 weeks)

The Sacred Art of Forgiveness: Jesus tells us that we must forgive "not seven times, but seventy times seven times." That is a lot of forgiving! Why is this so hard when we know that forgiveness is a profound path to emotional and spiritual liberation? Using Marcia Ford's book The Sacred Art of Forgiveness as our cornerstone, we will explore what blocks us from giving and receiving this sacred gift, and how we can open ourselves up to its healing power, which keeps us ever moving towards grace and compassion. Led by: Marilyn Wolf, M.Ed.
Wednesdays, 10—11:30 a.m., February 8 to March 29 (8 weeks)

America's Original Sin: A Book Study to Bring Us Closer to the People We Want to Be: How can we respond to the escalation of racial violence happening? What exactly is "white privilege"? Is it real? In our divided post-election context, what does reconciliation look like? How can we seek to serve Christ in all persons? How can we strive for justice and peace among all people, respecting the dignity of every human being? These are some of the themes we will discuss in this book study on Jim Wallis' new book, America's Original Sin. We will create a context in which everyone can be safe as we approach this sensitive but urgent issue. Led by: the Rev. Tricia de Beer, D.Min, M.Div.
Wednesdays 7—8:30 p.m., February 8 to April 12 (10 weeks)

Sacred Activism: Being Present to Children in Poverty: For over ten years, a small group of people have been working together to support local children living in poverty through our work with Partnership Village, a local transitional housing community. We visit with the children on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons to provide loving presence and tutoring support as they do their homework. We also offer them healthy snacks, books, and other materials. Join us for any one of our four monthly meetings to learn more about this form of servant leadership and discover how you might become more involved. Facilitated by: Ruth Anderson and other spiritual activists Location: Conference Room, Fisher House, 211 W. Fisher Ave.
Mondays, Jan 30th, Feb 27th, March 27th, & April 24th from 4—6 p.m.

Peace Pilgrimage: Staying grounded in the peace of God is a challenge. The Peace Pilgrimage will call on the experience of Greensboro's civil rights' activists as we explore our own yearning for wholeness and justice in our time. Our hope is to be guided by those who have gone before us, as we seek to manifest peace in the present. Preparatory seminars will feature personal stories and reflections, historical resources, and readings from the 1960's, with the goal of helping participants discover and claim their own sources of peace and mission. The 3.5 mile pilgrimage will trace significant sites of the movement in downtown Greensboro, with time for prayer and reflection at each stop. While the seminar sessions are open to any number, the walk is limited to a maximum of 30 people. Led by: Linda Brown & Rev. Susan Sherard. Seminar: Mondays 6:30–8 p.m. from March 13th to April 3rd Pilgrimage: Saturday, April 8th, 9 a.m.—4 p.m.

The Divine Dance: Experiencing the Trinity with Mike Morrell: In this hands-on workshop, Mike will lead participants into a deep-dive exploration of a genuine Trinitarian spirituality: one of both identity and interdependence. Through a series of fun and interactive group exercises, we will explore the present moment and the stories we all bear—getting to know ourselves better while at the same time learning to see and appreciate everyone we interact and connect with more fully, in order to experience the diversity-within-unity at the Trinity's core. This space of "practicing the presence of people" will become a safe place for taking risks, and for playing outside of our comfort zones, allowing us to discover a deeper sense of self and a deeper sense of unity with others. Participants should read The Divine Dance: Trinity and Your Transformation by Richard Rohr and Mike Morrell prior to attending this workshop, as well as Mike's bonus chapter, which is available at: mikemorrell.org/bonuschapter. Cost $50. Saturday, June 10th from 10:00 a.m.—2:00 p.m.

Spiritual Practices

Centering Prayer: We sit in a circle, take three deep breaths, and then enter into 20 minutes of silence together. After the silence, there is an opportunity to share prayer requests for the week, and to pray for ourselves, our community, and our world. No registration is required. Drop in anytime! Beginners are welcome! Led by: Kristen Leigh Southworth, M.Div. Location: Upper room, Fisher House, 211 W. Fisher Avenue.

Wednesdays 12–12:30 p.m., January 25 to May 17 (17 weeks)

Men's Spirituality Group: Designed to help men grow in relationship, mutual and self-understanding, and spirituality. Our philosophy is based on Richard Rohr's Reflections on Male Spirituality. We operate through selected readings, individual sharing, open and confidential listening, and various spiritual practices. Please contact Dick Weller at (336) 897-2503. Led by: Members of the Men's Spirituality Group.

2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month, 5:30–8 p.m., starting Jan 11th

Prayerful Yoga: Moving meditation that links mind, breath, and body, and encourages participants to surrender to the present moment. Prayerful yoga is suitable for all body types and those with some yoga experience. Together, we will place ourselves in an environment where the movement and meditation draws us closer to "the vital nucleus of things" and helps us to listen to our own truth through our shared experience. Please bring a mat or large towel and light blanket. Led by: Linda Hiatt, 200-hour Registered Yoga Teacher.

Session 1: Tuesdays 9:30–11 a.m., from Jan 24th to April 4th (10 sessions)

Session 2: Tuesdays 9:30–11 a.m., from April 25th to May 23rd (5 weeks)

Chair (Gentle) Yoga: Our practice of yoga meets us where we are at in the current moment; thus, there is a yoga practice suitable for everyone. Chair Yoga is for anyone, but especially for those who find moving from the floor to a standing position a challenge. The full array of yoga—poses, meditation, and breath work—will be easily and safely accessed from a chair, while building peace and equanimity in the mind and body. A minimum of 5 participants is needed. Led by: Linda Hiatt, 200-hour Registered Yoga Teacher.
Thursday 1—2:00 p.m., February 2 to March 30 (8 sessions)

Singing & Chant as a Spiritual Practice: “To sing is to pray twice,” said St. Augustine. Chant is one of Christianity’s oldest and most foundational spiritual practices. It is both active and contemplative, both individual and communal. All of us have within us the innate capacity to sing, but many still struggle to find their voice, especially in group singing contexts. Beginning with the breath and basic vocal exercises, we will explore the practice of singing from its root so that experienced singers and “non-singers” alike will find their voices anew. We will learn different traditions of sacred singing like Taizé, Iona, Songs of Presence, and African-American spirituals, and discover how singing in any context can invite us into a deeper sense of Presence with others and with God. No prior musical knowledge is necessary. Led by: Kristen Leigh Southworth, M.Div. and professional singer/songwriter
Saturday, February 18 9:30 a.m.—noon

Yoga & the Labyrinth Workshop With Mona Flynn: Join us for a workshop that combines various yogic tools to enhance your walking meditation, including breath work, energetic hand positions, aromatherapy, and poses that will be taught and adapted to fit any level of ability. Yoga is a spiritual practice that guides us to find our place as we journey towards understanding our direction and purpose. Come to learn, practice, and discover more tools for the journey towards greater awareness and spiritual growth, both individually and collectively. Namaste.
Saturday, March 18, 2-4 p.m.

Transformational Breath® Mini Workshop: Dr. Judith Kravitz, founder of Transformational Breath®, invites us to consider the pattern of our breathing as a metaphor for how we live our lives. In this mini-workshop, a breath coach will introduce this practice and help you to experience the benefits of a full, deep, and connected breath, using diaphragmatic belly breathing to open up restricted breath patterns and release negative inner beliefs and behaviors, replacing them with feelings of passion, joy, and love, leading to increased awareness of our oneness with God and others. Participation limited to 8 people. Facilitated by: Christine Edwards, Summer Estes, the Rev. Greg Farrand, and the Rev. Timothy Patterson. Location: The Youth House at Holy Trinity, 601 N. Greene St.
Saturday, April 1st from 9:30 a.m.—12 p.m.

Introduction to Walking Meditation Using the Labyrinth: What is the labyrinth and what does it have to do with our spiritual journey? If you have been curious about the labyrinth as a spiritual tool, this workshop will provide you with gentle instruction and support. Veteran walkers may want to attend as a “mini retreat” in the context of a supportive community. Meet in Broome Hall and then we will move to the outdoor labyrinth. Led by The Labyrinth Keepers.
Saturday, May 6, 11 a.m.—1 p.m.
